Missionaries Back From Africa To Tell Of Work

The Rev. and Mrs. Carl W. Mischke, returned veteran Nazarene teachers and missionaries to South Africa, will speak here at the New Lenox Church of the Nazarene, Sunday (Feb. 19) at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. and Mrs. Mischke are on a furlough in the United States, doing deputation work among churches of the denomination.

First assigned abroad in July, 1932, this will be their fourth furlough in 30 years as missionaries for the Nazarene church.

Since 1957, they have been in charge of the Nazarene work in Transvaal, with headquarters at Whitbank. He has conducted services at the mining compounds and done other work, and Mrs. Mischke has assisted. While serving earlier in Swaziland, he was principal of a Bible school at Stegi and in charge of outstations.

In his talks, the Rev. Mr. Mischke will tell of South Africa and its people, and describe the Nazarene missionary program there. He has colored slides to show.

He was born in Moran, Kas.,

and graduated from Northwest Nazarene college, Nampa, Idaho in 1927. He served as teacher on an Indian reservation in Nevada and as a pastor of two Nazarene churches before going to South Africa.

The Mischkes have a son, Capt. Richard H. Mischke, who is serving in the Air Force.

Mokena Would Hire Man For General Work

The Mokena village board is looking for a man for general maintenance work.

Francis O'Brien, who was hired on a temporary basis for the post has another 30 days before his term expires. At its last meeting the board decided to advertise for a man and Trustees Rauch and Shevlin were appointed to screen applicants.

This is the post formerly occupied by Fred Steinhagen who retired a couple of months ago that he might be at home with his wife, who is in ill health.

The general maintenance man has many duties, it was said, from operating the sewage treatment plant to fixing leaks in water mains and holes in the street, the repair and reading of water meters and any other chores that may arise.

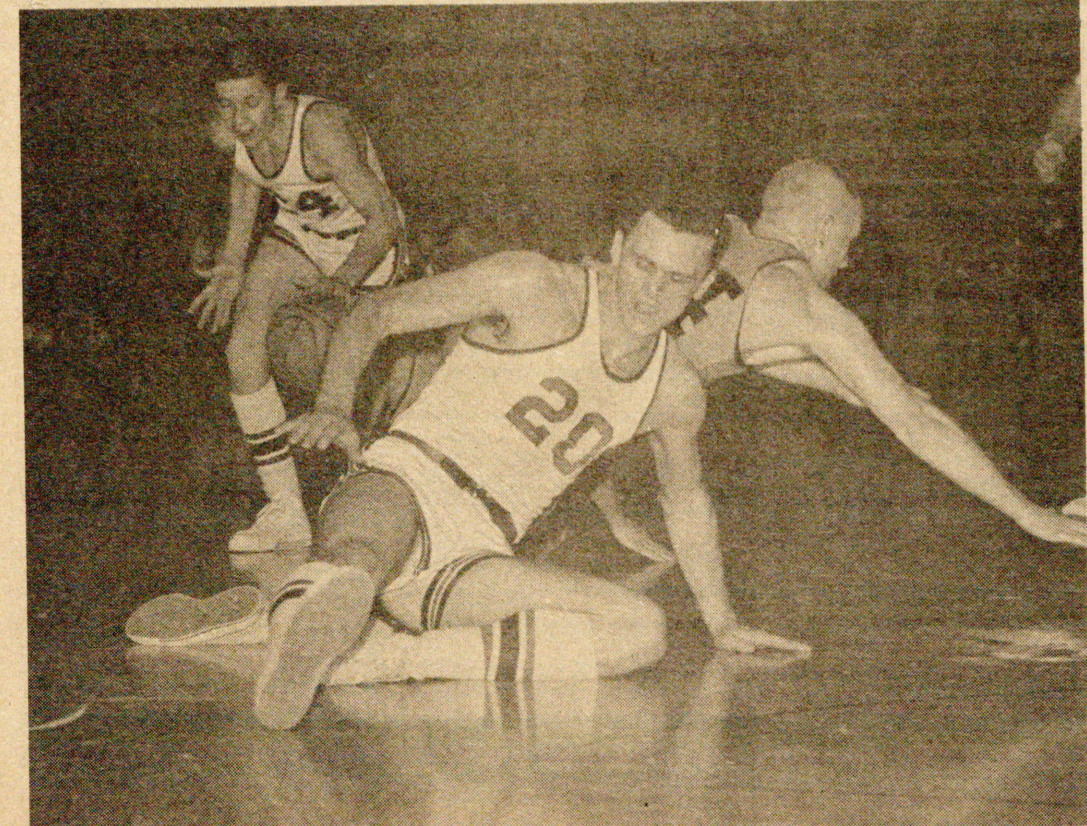

Police To Run Check On Dogs

The number of dog licenses sold in Mokena and the number of dogs there are in the village show quite a difference.

There are -- or were at last count -- 156 dogs in the village but only 14 of them had licenses, according to the records of last Monday.

The village board expects to have the gap closed when the water meters are read again.

The police chief, Vernon Bormet, is also the man who reads the meters. It was indicated by officials that while reading meters Bormet can also take time to write out a ticket for the householder where an unlicensed dog is found on the premises, or the animal is permitted to be at large. Then the pet owner can argue it out in police court.

Mokena Man To Serve In Air Line Of Saudi Arabian King

Robert Clark, 114th and Front streets, Mokena, left yesterday (Feb. 14) for Saudi Arabia where he is to be a flight engineer on the Saudi Arabian Air Lines.

Since the Saudi Arabian Air Lines is financed by King Saud it will also serve that monarch as a medium of transportation when he sees fit so in effect Clark will be a flight engineer for the royal family.

Clark, who has been a machanic and a flight engineer for TWA is a veteran at the post. Incidentally while the American crews that will operate the Arabian air line are employees of the king their contracts were arranged thru TWA.

The Saudi Arabian Air Lines has been in operation for some time but until now its ships were piston jobs. Now King Saud has bought two 720 Boeing jets at the Boeing plant in Seattle. The crew forward for one of these ships is made up of the pilot, co-pilot and the flight engineer. Eight of these crews, or 24 men, have been hired for the undertaking. They will fly the new jets to their home base in Saudi Arabia.

Each ship will be able to carry 107 passengers when used commercially but the seating arrangements can be and will be altered when used by the king on his travels.

In preparation for their duties the crews attended two weeks of school at the Boeing plant and six weeks of instruction at the TWA base in Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Clark expects to stay on the job for at least 18 months and in two three months expects to have his wife, Juanita, and children flown to Saudi Arabia so the family can be together. The Clarks have a son, Kenneth, 10 years old, and two daughters, Pamela, 8, and Diana 4 years old.

This will be the first venture abroad for the family and all are excited over the prospect.

The Clarks have resided at Mokena for the past four years.

Maria Continues To Improve; Parents May Leave Saturday

Maria (Marijke) van den Nouwland, Belgian student at Lincoln-Way high school under the student exchange program, is facing a long convalescence and the handicap that the loss of a foot will entail to a young, vigorous, sports-minded girl but she is in wonderful spirits and ready to take what the future may hold.

Since the morning of Feb. 3 many things have happened to Maria. It was on the third that she was injured. The car in which she was a passenger collided with a train on the E.J. & E. crossing on Cedar road in New Lenox. The air was thick with fog that morning and the road covered with a sheath of ice. Driver of the car could not see the train or the flasher that signalled its passing until too late, the accident report states.

Maria suffered the loss of her right foot and a compound fracture of the right thigh.

Struck with the fact that here was a stranger in a strange land, a girl some 4,000 miles away from home and family, the public rallied to her aid, swiftly and generously. Before Maria was off the operating table several hundred dollars had been contributed to a fund to bring her mother to her bedside.

As news of the girl's plight spread so did the source of contributions. The amount contributed has grown so fast, and changes so rapidly that a daily publication has not been able to keep up with it and for a weekly paper to attempt it is impossible.

The total was well over the $8,000 mark on Tuesday when this story was written. It may be $9,000, or more, on the day of publication which is Feb. 15. Thanks to these donations both parents, Pierre and Henricka van den Nouwland, were flown here, arriving at Silver Cross hospital the afternoon of Feb. 7.

Maria was overjoyed to greet her father and mother but the excitement and the emotion were such that her nerves flared and it was impossible for her to continue with solid foods for a few days. Her condition was reported as improved on Tuesday and she was able to retain food.

It is possible that both parents will return to their home in Belgium Saturday. When they came over it was known that the father who is a textile engineer in a Belgian factory, would have to return in a week or 10 days but it was believed the mother would stay on. Mr. Van den Nouwland speaks and understands English but his wife does not. While this language barrier might prove somewhat of a handicap it is not this that is influencing Mrs. vandenNouwland to return at this time. She has children and a home in Belgium that need her attention but it isn't that either -- the fact is van den Nouwlands find flying anything but relaxing and neither of them wants to make the return journey alone. So on Tuesday they were talking about going home together, probably this Saturday if Maria continues to improve as she has.

Maria's parents are staying with the Eugene Baileys at Manhattan, where Maria has lived since her arrival last summer. The parents and Maria have repeatedly expressed themselves as amazed and grateful over the kindness shown them as well as the generous manner in which contributions have been rolling in.

Lincoln-Way high school officials have been sending out letters to groups and individuals, thanking them for their assistance and efforts in raising the fund for Maria.

In the case of the communities within the Lincoln-Way district letters have been addressed to the communities themselves, thanking everyone who

Krusemark To Speak At Elmhurst

Albert H. Krusemark, Republican candidate for state senator in the 41st Senatorial District, will make a key speech before the Elmhurst Young Republican Club on Thursday evening, Feb. 15. The Young GOP group's will be held at the Butterfield field house in Elmhurst.

Krusemark's talk is expected to emphasize his position on tax and school problems. He has declared himself to be definitely opposed to any state income tax. He further has stated his belief that it is necessary that a complete and thorough study be made of the Revenue Article of the Constitution for possible revision of modernization. He emphasizes that the present tax burden of real estate taxes on the property owner is out of proportion to other types of taxes in the state and that a program must be initiated to equalize the tax burden and eliminate the penalty on the property owner.

His insistence on maintaining the high educational standards and opportunities for Illinois school children reflects his own familiarity with school problems. He has been president of the Lincoln-Way High School District since 1951 and was previously president of the grade school district.

Krusemark's candidacy has the backing of State Sen. Lottie Holman O'Neill, now retiring after a distinguished public career in both houses of the Illinois General Assembly.

contributed. Such letters have gone to Frankfort, New Lenox, Mokena, Manhattan, Lincoln Estates. Door-to-door solicitations have taken place in all these places and it is impossible to send individual thanks to all contributors, it was pointed out.

Mail continues to pour in for Maria, giving her encouragement and wishing her speedy recovery. The mail also includes several letters from soldiers and sailors, who are always ready to exchange a word with a pretty girl.

"Marijke's good spirits thru out her steady improvement are due, in part, to your support and encouragement," Supt. A. Hunter Chapman wrote in part in the letters sent out from the school to the communities. "She is truly a wonderful girl, a credit to her country and a good example for our young people."

Funds not used for Maria's parents transportation will be reserved in a special fund and used to meet the many expenses that will be connected with her long hospitalization. The attending doctors say Maria will be hospitalized from three to five months.

Representatives from Thornton and Thornridge high schools were to bring contributions to Lincoln - Way Tuesday or Wednesday. More than $400 has been raised by the students there and contributions also have come in from Downers Grove and Dixon high schools as well as others in the area. Homewood-Flossmoor sent in some $500 last week.

Supt. Chapman said this week that as soon as Maria's condition permits the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. will install a phone hook-up between her room and her classes at Lincoln-Way so she will be able to carry on with her studies. The connections are such that she is able -- thru delicate microphones, to take part in class discussions with the same ease as if she were actually present.

It will be some time yet before Maria will be permitted to have visitors.

Confirmands To Methodists Hear Bishop

Youngsters who will be confirmed in the Methodist churches of the area this spring will attend a joint meeting Feb. 25 at which the meaning of church membership will be explained by Bishop Charles Brashares.

The meeting will be held in the Ottawa Street Methodist church, Ottawa and Cass streets Joliet, at 7 p.m.

Youngsters and their parents are urged to be present. Bishop Brashares will explain the duties and responsibilities to church and community that come with church membership.

Last year such a meeting was conducted in the Richards Street Methodist church at Joliet and the edifice was filled to capacity. Those in charge expect that the meeting this year will also draw a capacity audience.

According to the Methodist pastors from New Lenox, Mokena, Frankfort and Green Garden it was expected that the number of confirmands, with their parents, who will attend from this area will be well above the 100 mark.

WILL COUNTY POSTMASTERS meet at New Lenox. The group meets monthly to discuss problems and means and methods for improving postal operations. Right now there are changes in the third class rates that require some study, it was said. Leo Hanna, who arrived too late to be included in the picture, a field service officer from Chicago, discussed this problem with the postmasters. The group met at Bruns restaurant and after a two-hour discussion the group concluded the session with a supper. In the picture (l to r) are Leroy Mager, Frankfort, Mrs. Margaret O'Brien, Mokena, John West, Lockport postmaster and recently elected president of the Will county group, and Lester F. Brown, New Lenox postmaster. (Semmler Press photo)

March 15 Deadline For Auto Stickers In Mokena

After March 15 the fee for village automobile tags in Mokena will be $5 but until that date the discount now allowed will remain in effect so that a person buying a sticker now will get it was $3.

Next year, however, things will be different if the ordinance is amended as proposed by Trustee Clarence Zugenbuehler is put into effect. This measure would limit the discount period to between Dec. 1 and Dec. 31.

It was pointed out that those who wait until after March 15 to buy a village tag will find that it will cost more than $5. There will be court costs and fines added to the total.

There are approximately 660 automobiles inside the village limits and to date the number of vehicle tags sold is half of that number. Some persons who live in the Mokena area but outside the village limits purchase vehicle tags every year, and on time too. They don't have to have them, of course, but they find it saves them time and explanations when they park in Chicago or other communities if they have a sticker on the windshield showing the car is registered in a village. Otherwise they find themselves with a ticket and it takes time to get rid of it, a motorist told Village Clerk Alvin Sorensen.

Smorgasbord On At St. Jude's School Feb. 17

The Parents club of St. Jude's school at New Lenox is sponsoring a smorgasbord this Saturday (Feb. 17) evening at the school on West 2nd street.

According to those in charge there will be everything one can expect to find at a smorgasbord. Not only will there be a variety of food from which to choose but there is also a choice of time in which to eat. There are to be four servings -- 4, 5, 6 and 7 o'clock and tickets will be sold to meet those schedules.

Tickets, incidentally, may be purchased at the door. There are three prices -- $2 for adults, $1 for children of grade school age and 50 cents for those of pre-school age.

him numerous awards. The watch was presented by Al Wroblewski, ABC secretary at Joliet, on the right is the Operator of the Frankfort lanes, Joseph Machtemes, at whose alleys the score was made. (Semmler Press Photo)

Eagles Rip Rams 75-54 2nd Place Rockets Next

BY GEORGE FREED
Carl Sandburg tuned up for its show down with rich tomorrow night by soundly trouncing Reavis 75-54 last Friday. The Eagles picked up number 11 in conference action and boosted their overall record to 16-4. Conference scoring leader Lance Roberts hit his high for the season firing thru 38 points and moving far ahead of his nearest challengers, Lussow of Bremen and Frye of Homewood Flossmoor. Lance upped his average to a neat 23 plus and ranks as one of, if not the hottest scorer in Sandburg's history. Sophomore Dick Hlavak took runner up honors with 18 points. Moran was high for the Rams with 12.

The Eagles trailed in the first quarter but rallied to take a 39-22 half time lead. It was 52-34 at the end of three quarters.

A big roar went up from the crowd when freshman Jim Roberts entered the game late in the fourth quarter, and an even bigger cheer let loose when he hit two free throws. Jim is Lances younger brother and won his promotion to the varsity on outstanding play with the frosh soph. Who are undefeated in conference play. Conference foes are in for a long look at another Roberts who could be even greater than his brother.

(FROSH SOPH WIN)
The Eagle F. S. remained unbeaten in conference play by downing the smaller Rams 51-37.

(MEET RICH)
Tomorrow night conference leader Carl Sandburg travels to Park Forest for its most important game of the season. The Rockets will have to be at their "pressing best" if they expect to upset the unbeaten Eagles. Rich started the season slowly dropping four of their first nine games then capturing nine in a row before losing to Joliet Township last Saturday night. This will be a big one for the smooth functioning Eagles as a win will assure them a tie for the championship. Two wins in the next three games will give them the title outright. Rich stayed with Sandburg for three quarters in the first meeting then wilted in the fourth period dropping a 70-52 decision. A capacity crowd will be on hand for this attractive show down between two of the top teams in the conference.

L-W Loses Toughie To Rockets In Final Frame

BY PAUL BROWN
Lincoln-Way took its seventh conference loss this season—but not without putting up a tremendous battle. They played their best game of the year against the second-place Rockets last week-end, but failed to pull out the victory.

Rich led 13-10 at the close of the first period but the Knights outscored the Rockets 11-7 in the second quarter for a 21-20 halftime lead. In the third stanza the Rockets fought back and led 35-31. Then came the fatal final period for the Knights. After being behind by five points they fought back to within a point with about two and a half minutes remaining in the game.

Then the roof caved in. The Knights brought the ball down the court with a chance to take over the lead only to get called for over-and-back. Rich then scored six points in a row and iced the game.

Top scorers for the Knights were John Burroughs with 16 points and Ron Yunker with 13 points. High men for Rich were Gil Hopper with 15 points and Bill Bellnap with 14 points.

The frosh-soph Rockets also defeated the Knights, 45-40. This weekend Lincoln-Way plays in two games. Tomorrow night the Knights will be hosts to the Vikings of Homewood-Flossmoor, and Saturday night they travel to Peotone to take on the Blue Devils.

Judge Holds Petition To Remove Club Receiver Insult To Court

(CNS) A petition to remove the receiver his attorney, and his accountant, appointed in circuit court for the Palos Country club, 131st and South-west highway, was dismissed by Circuit Judge William V. Brothers on the grounds it was "based on conclusions" and "insulting to the court."

He refused to allow it to be filed by Attorney Hamilton Smith, representing the A.J.F. Corporation and B.H.F. Corporation, which together own 46 per cent interest in the partnership owning the 188-acre, $1,000,000 property, while 54 per cent is held by George D. Sullivan, Sr., president of Palos Country Club, Inc., and a brother of late U.S. District Judge Philip L. Sullivan.

On Nov. 3, soon after the suit was filed, Judge B. Fain Tucker, to whom it is assigned appointed as receiver Albert J. McAllister; as his attorney, William J. Kiley. Leon Busby was chosen as their accountant.

In presenting his motion Thursday before Judge Brothers because Judge Tucker was home ill, Attorney Smith said his grounds were that "the receiver is favorable to the plaintiff"; we have it here documented in a big thick document."

Attorney Riley complained the petition he referred to, which has already been filed in the court clerk's office, was "the most scurrilous document I have ever seen."

Judge Brothers who had recessed court briefly in order to read the petition in chambers and returned to the bench, then said:

"I think the motion is insulting to the court. If the court sees fit to put its confidence in a receiver, it should be presumed he is acting properly until he does something wrong."

"Furthermore, this petition mentions criminal proceedings in the U.S. District court which have nothing to do with this case. I don't think it should do that. I think it's terrible and I won't allow it to be filed and you may prepare an order expunging it from the record."

Attorney Smith persisted: "We're entitled to a hearing and opportunity to prove what we allege. This receiver is a former employee of the plaintiff. He has been talking continuously with the plaintiff about running the club and he won't talk with us. This is a $1,000,000 club and we can't afford to let that go on."

"Maybe he knew what you were going to say about him in this petition," said Judge Brothers.

"We hadn't drawn it yet and we might never have done it

Smith. "I know all about the criminal case you refer to," said the court. "Everybody in the community knows all about it. There has been no disposition in the U.S. court and to use that against someone in a civil case is really insulting to the court."

"I'm charging Mr. Busby with having continuing relations with the plaintiff," said Smith.

"What's wrong with that?" asked the court. "If no one had any affiliations we'd never make any progress."

Busby is a defendant in an old indictment still pending charging conspiracy in connection with the income tax prosecution of Shotwell Manufacturing Co., in which Harold Sullivan, brother of George, has a jail sentence pending which has been on appeal in various courts for eight years.

"Are we not entitled to a hearing," Attorney Smith asked.

"Your charges are conclusions," said the court. "Until the record is complete with some action on the part of the receiver, not yours, you can't file such a petition here. I will order it expunged physically from the record. Judge Tucker has a right to do whatever she wants about it, but if asked I would tell her not to accept it."

Judge Brothers pointed out his order was "not appealable unfortunately," and when Smith pointed out he could make it appealable by so stating in the order, the judge said: "I'm not going to. I think damage enough has come to people in criminal cases where they have had an adverse result, not to bring in corollary proceeding like this."

"Will the court advise me what way I may go about it, then?"

"I haven't time," said the court. "Call the next case."

The petition was removed from the file so it could not be inspected by reporters of which there were several in the room. It was learned that in connection with the "former employee" reference that Receiver McAllister was a former manager of the Webster hotel, a part of the north side Lott Hotels once controlled by the Sullivans.

In a cross suit in Superior court, Smith's clients charge that George D. Sullivan, Sr., has used the partnership property for his own gain through such actions as using $1,000 of club money to stock his own farm at Marengo with pheasants and moving to his home a new spinet piano.

NFO Chapter Elects Staff To Serve Will Co. Unit

The National Farmers Organization group in Will county have elected officers for the current year. The election was carried out at a special meeting in Sportsman's hall, Manhattan.

Eugene Gaskin, Lockport township, was elected chairman and John Alexander, also of Lockport township and a member of one of the pioneer farm families of Will county, was chosen as vice-chairman. Other officers are, Frank O'Connor, Jackson township, secretary and Joe Bernhard, Jackson, treasurer. Kenneth Fritz, New Lenox township, is publicity chairman and the co-chairman is Arthur Rademacher. Joseph Steinke was elected a trustee.

Next regular meeting of the Will county chapter will be held at 8 p.m., in the Sportsman's hall at Manhattan. A get-acquainted session was held last Thursday evening in the Troy fire engine house.

The National Farmers Organization, according to Mr. Gaskin, established a chapter in Will county last May. Nationally, he said, it is the second largest farm organization. It has a different approach to the farm problem, he stated. The NFO is now meeting with various processors with the idea of making contracts to bring about prices that will show the farmer a reasonable profit.

"We have been living on depreciation for the past several years," Mr. Gaskin said, "and it is time we have some assurance that we can turn to profits."

Operating and maintenance costs as well as living costs would be prime factors in making up contracts, it was explained. Mr. Gaskin said that some processors have already entered into contracts with the producing farmers.

Headquarters of the NFO are at Corning, Ia.

Miss Ruth Ann Rainford, who spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Rainford has returned to her classes at Normal State university.

Icy Weather Driving Tips Offered By Club

--In snowy or slushy weather, drivers who leave and re-enter their cars frequently may find a layer of ice building up on the brake pedal or other foot controls. It is important to take the time to scrape away any accumulation of snow or ice from these vital controls. A slip of the foot could cause a serious accident.

--Always carry emergency winter driving equipment in the rear of your car. Tire chains, a bag of cinders or rock salt, and a small shovel come in handy when you find your car bogged down by ice and snow.

--Make certain you scrape away all snow and ice from both front and back windows BEFORE venturing out into traffic.

--To stop safely on icy pavement, pump your brakes lightly.

--Driving too close to the car ahead brings a double danger when streets and highways are snow covered and slippery.

First, there is the increased danger of rear-end collision. Second, your windshield and headlights will collect a double dose of muddy spray thrown by the wheels of the car ahead, impairing your visibility.

Local Jury Finds Man Guilty Of Drunk Driving

Jessie Shelato, 44, of 9249 Birch was found guilty on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol by a jury of six men and six women on Feb. 5 in Police Magistrate Kenneth Pisanko's court.

According to the police report, Shelato was arrested at 12:15 a.m. on Dec. 24 after driving west on 143rd street and south on Beacon where he stopped in front of the village hall. Officer Robert Olson, who had followed him in the squad car, arrested Shelato. The arrested man refused to submit to a drunkometer test so Police Commissioner Frank Guetter was summoned, and by the Harger Test determined that Shelato was under the influence of alcohol. His trial was scheduled for Jan. 13 at which time he requested a jury trial.

The trial, that took four hours to complete, was the second jury trial in the history of the Orland Park Police Department since it was formally organized in 1955. The jurors were selected from the list of registered voters in Orland Township.

Shelato was fined $100 and $7 cost by Magistrate Pisanko.

What's Washable? Tests Give Answer To Question

The question, "What's washable?" is a difficult one to answer these days, especially with the array of new fabrics in both natural and synthetic fibers.

In order to determine the complete launderability and wearability of fabrics--to guide the homemaker when she queries, "Will it wash? Will it wear?" -- an extensive research program is carried on daily at American Institute of Laundering, at Joliet.

Textile mills, clothing manufacturers, as well as producers of deodorants, send their products to the Institute's Certified Washable Seal laboratory for

Hints For Homeowners

By: JAMES FIZZELL, ASS'T. FARM ADVISER

After the dark, dreary days this winter, some fresh flowers in the home are a cheery sight. Many of the spring flowers can easily be forced indoors before they bloom naturally outside.

Forsythia, pussywillow, red-bud, and cornelian cherry are some of the earliest blooming of spring shrubs. Since the flower buds are already formed, these branches can be cut and placed in water in the home. In a few days, the buds will swell and burst into bloom.

Remember, if you cut all the buds off your shrubs, they will not bloom this year, so cut sparingly. Other spring flowering shrubs than the above can be forced in the home. Experiment with the shrubs in your yard and see which ones can be made to bloom by forcing.

If you have any tulip, crocus, hyacinth, or narcissus bulbs which didn't get planted last fall, they can be forced now if they have been pre-cooled by exposure to cold weather all winter.

Plant the bulbs in pots; four to six bulbs in each pot. Use a soil mixture of about one-third sand two-thirds garden loam. Water and drain the pots and set them in a cool (45 - 50 degrees) dark place in the home where they can form roots and begin to grow. When the shoots come out, move the plants to a warmer, light place but not in direct sunlight. When the shoots turn green set the pots in the south window. Your local florist can supply you with pre-cooled bulbs, or, if you wish, plants already in bloom.

While you are at your florist, get your tickets for the World Flower Show, March 24 - April 1, and pick up some assorted flower heads to dress up the green plants in your home. Insert the stems in "water picks" and wire them to the branches and leaves with plant ties.

testing. These manufacturers are the ones who wish to maintain high quality standards in their garments, fabrics and other products in order to give the homemaker the most for her clothing dollar.

Testing is practical, scientifically accurate and completely impartial. The Seal is considered one of the outstanding guides to launderability in the country.

The research staff puts each product through a rigid series of tests. This includes a number of washings under professional laundry conditions in its model testing laboratory.

Technicians study the tensile strength of woven fabrics and seams, and bursting strength of knitwear. They check the retention of elasticity in elastic webbing. They measure color fastness to washing, pressing, gas fading, bleeding (one color staining another) and crocking (rubbing off of color by friction). They check the resistance of fabrics to loss of color from light and perspiration. They test for shrinkage; they evaluate water absorption, crease resistancy, water repellency and any other characteristic which may affect the product's satisfactory service to the consumer.

One of the most important tests is the check made on the general appearance of the product after laundering. This includes a study of yarn slippage, fabric distortion, seam puckering, and drying or pressing characteristics.

Each and every item submitted by the manufacturer is tested. If a line contains 20 colors in varying styles and fabrics, each must pass all tests for color, fabric and style before the entire line is certified. Less than 50% of the total items submitted meet A.I.L. standards.

The items are also re-tested on a continuous basis in order to keep up the high quality standards.

Products that pass all the tests and meet the quality standards are awarded the Certified Washable Seal. Since 1936, the Seal laboratory has conducted a constant campaign against merchandise that is launderable in name but not in fact. Top standards of launderability must be met before any product is awarded the Seal, because it is a guide to consumers as to what the Institute considers truly launderable.

When the Seal appears on a product, it means the shopper will have a completely washable and long wearing article. The testing program and its Seal also protect the manufacturers and the professional laundrymen who handle the homemaker's bundles.

Calls Urban Cabinet Post Plan Plot By Bureaucrats

The proposal to create a new department of urban affairs with cabinet status was criticized by Fourth District Congressman Edward J. Derwinski as a huge step in the field of invading the responsibility of state and local governments. At the same time Chicago's Mayor Daley and Illinois' Governor Kerner were in Washington endorsing the proposal. Derwinski, a Member of the House Banking and Currency Committee which handles housing legislation, further claimed that the real reason for the elevation of the Housing and Home Finance Agency to Cabinet level is to have additional leverage to use in promoting federal activity in areas and with respect to problems which have always been considered purely local.

"Rather than creating a new Cabinet post and stamping this type of Federal activity with the mechanism of permanence, we ought to be seeking means of getting the federal government out of our private free enterprise economy," Derwinski said. "Of course, such a suggestion would be repulsive to the state planners who are constantly seeking ways to enlarge the scope of government."

"If this legislation is adopted it will constitute yet another step in the process of eroding the responsibility of state and local government, and ultimately our competitive private enterprise system to meet human needs and develop the resource-es of our economy," Derwinski added. The Fourth District Congressman also commented that "the proposal is compatible with the wishes of those who see a centrally managed economy directed by a central monster in Washington as the answer to all our problems. Over a century ago Chief Justice Marshall delivered his famous dictum: 'the power to tax is the power to destroy.' As more and more tax dollars are siphoned away from state and local government to sustain and nourish our self-perpetuating Washington bureaucracy," Derwinski continued, "we will learn the bitter lesson of that basic truth."

Derwinski emphatically denied the President's charge that Republican opposition to this proposal stemmed from his announcement of the appointment of a negro to this Cabinet post. The Fourth District Congressman suggested the President could appoint a negro to any of the other Cabinet positions, and that the debate on the Urban Affairs Department should not become subject to racial or political charges, but should be based entirely on the merits or demerits of the proposal.

Gov. Kerner and Mayor Daley appeared before the house government operations Committee supporting the proposal. This will be one of the major votes in this early period of the present congressional session.

Mrs. Marvin Cooper and Mrs. Mary Koester assisted Mrs. Reckemer serving refreshments. Next meeting will be held Friday, Feb. 23rd at the home of Mrs. Breitzmann in Worth, Ill.

Civic Association Elects Staff For Current Year

MOKENA 5740

The Arbury Hills Civic Association held its annual election on Tuesday evening, Feb. 6, at the school.

The nominating committee reported its recommendations and there were several nomi-inations from the floor.

Elected were:

Richard Heim, president; Donald Waters, vice president; Marie Stapleton, secretary and Roy Sipin, treasurer.

Six were elected to the board of directors: Albert Behnke, Leonard Guntz, Frances Rushing, Emmett Stapleton, Robert Zay and Dorothy Smith.

The Rev. James Parkers spoke on the civic responsibilities of citizens.

Mimeographed copies of the treasurer's report were passed out to those at the meeting. The annual activities report of the association is now being prepared and will be ready for the March meeting.

"It was quite a pleasure to see such a satisfying turnout for this all important meeting," said a spokesman for the Civic group. "We hope that these people who have displayed their interest will continue to support the association with their presence at succeeding meetings."

Civic Association area representatives are not contacting all residents, seeking renewal of membership for the coming year.

The next regular monthly meeting of the Arbury Hills kindergarten organization will be held Feb. 21 in the home of Mrs. Leonard Guntz. The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m.

The Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Group, whose meetings had been disrupted by weather conditions, finally met the evening of Feb. 8 at the school. Miss Miller's second grade class won the cash award for the greatest number of parents present for the meeting. While there was no meeting of the PTG in January the monthly plaque for the best attendance for pupils was awarded to the third graders. Miss Gibbs is the teacher.

Mrs. Gilbert and the fifth grade class got the plaque this month for the third time in four months.

John Hayden showed a film on Driving Safety.

Three committees were set up. The nominating committee, headed by Mrs. Walter Plumly, is to bring in recommendations for a staff of officers to be elected at the April meeting. The project committee, John Smith chairman, is to meet with the principal and school board members to select some undertaking the PTG can sponsor to aid the school. The third committee, Lloyd Klein chairman, is to discuss plans for a PTG fun night program. Pupils will provide the entertainment for the March meeting. Hostesses for the February meeting were mothers of the fifth graders.

The Hovi household took on the appearance of a private hospital this past week. The two youngest boys, Michael and David came down with scarlet fever, and the next day Edward became ill, chickenpox. Marie Ann Hovi went to stay with her grandparents until the health flag is floating over the Hovi home again. Anyone for an early summer?

Five schoolmates of Marijke van den Nouwland, the exchange student at Lincoln-Way from Belgium who suffered the loss of a foot in a grade crossing crash Feb. 3, added to the fund that is being raised in her behalf by collecting $104.22 in Arbury Hills. The girls were: Pat Perry, Karen Blank, Marsha and Donna Schubert and Phyllis Estes.

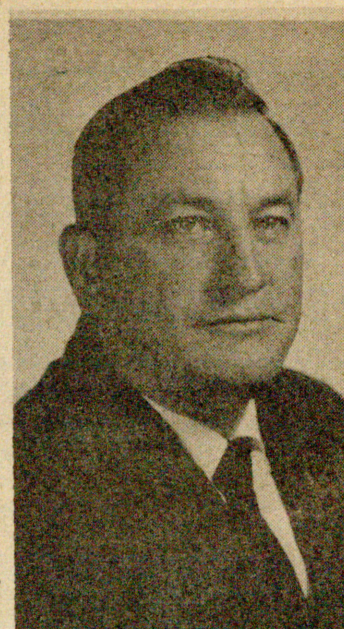

Red Cross To Give Course In Baby Care

A free Red Cross "mother and baby care" class will be held at St. Francis hospital, 12948 Gregory, Blue Island, starting on Tuesday, March 6. Prospective parents who will have their "new arrival" at St. Francis are eligible for the course, according to Sister M. Frances Jeanne, supervisor of the nursery.

The Red Cross-trained instructor for the six-week course will be Mrs. Bette Boer, 924 E. 166th Pl., South Holland, a registered nurse and member of the hospital's nursery staff.

Red Cross baby care courses are enjoying a wide popularity throughout the metropolitan area of Chicago. Specially designed for parents-to-be--both wives and husbands--the course covers the caring for mother and infant from the start of pregnancy through the child's first year.

Meeting once a week from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., the course consists of both discussion and practice sessions.

Daniels, vice president of the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, has been named Crusade chairman of the 1962 Crusade of the American Cancer Society, Illinois Division, Inc., according to announcement today by Mrs. Clarence Lipman, American Cancer Society chairman of the Will County Unit.

Mrs. Lipman said that over 500 volunteers in Will County Unit area and 100,000 throughout the state will work with Mr. Daniels, who heads the Crusade in 1962 which is known as CANCER PROGRESS YEAR. This marks the 25th anniversary of the establishment of the National Cancer Institute and the nationwide launching of an intensive public education program by the American Cancer Society. The Crusade reaches its climax in April, officially designated Cancer Control Month.

In accepting the chairmanship and outlining Crusade plans for the Division goal of $1,900,000, the largest ever set in the state, Mr. Daniels says, "I am hopeful that we shall be a thoroughly successful Crusade. With a statewide army of 100,000 volunteers we are bound to enlarge our borders in spreading the word of progress in cancer control, and I am confident that public response to our workers will insure the success of our campaign."

Will Observe National 4-H Club Week March 3-10

About 1,200 Will county 4-H'ers will observe national 4-H Club Week, March 3 - 10. The young people are among the 2,296,000 4-H members who belong to about 93,000 local clubs in rural, suburban, and urban areas throughout the United States. Fifty-four per cent of Will County's 4-H members are city or rural-non-farm residents.

Illinois has an enrollment of 76,000 boys and girls. Will County has 1105 members. A special 4-H Week activity planned for Will county is the annual 4-H window display contest. Thru the generous support of local merchants, 4-H clubs sponsor displays in several store windows. The county's 4-H Federation presents ribbons for the contest.

The week has a number of local and national aims--among them: To give members a chance to measure progress and set new goals, influence more youth to join or form 4-H clubs, acquaint more parents with the organization and enlist their aid; encourage more persons to volunteer as local leaders, stress learning to live and serve cooperatively with others, and recognize the major part played by Friends of 4-H.

The week will be highlighted in Washington, D.C., by a team of 4-H'ers, representing members everywhere, who will give the annual "4-H Report to the Nation." The report will review in story and pictures outstanding 4-H achievements and current projects. While in the Nations' Capital, the reporter-delegates will visit the White House, meet members of Congress, high government officials, and other national leaders. After a short stay in Washington, they expect to go elsewhere for a few days to meet with other friends of 4-H.

Sharing honors with club members in all states will be nearly 310,700 men and women who serve as unpaid volunteer leaders, and guide 4-H work in local communities throughout the 50 states and Puerto Rico.

Signup Opens For 1962

Feed Grain Program

Growers of corn, grain sorghum, and spring-planted barley now may sign up to take part in the 1962 feed grain program, Carl M. Bormet, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, announced today. The signup period will extend thru March 30.

Operation of the program, the chairman explained, will be similar to the 1961 feed grain program.

Likewise, its objectives are the same -- (1) To increase farm income; (2) to further reduce the excess feed grain stocks; (3) to reduce Government costs of farm programs; (4) to reduce the risk of serious overproduction of meat, poultry, and dairy products; and (5) to assure consumers of fair and stable prices for these products.

All producers of corn, grain sorghum, or spring barley are eligible to take part in the feed grain program, which calls for the diversion of acreage formerly planted to one or more of these crops into an approved soil-conserving use. The program is voluntary, but program participation by farmers who produce these feed grain crops is required if they want to be eligible for price support on their feed grain crops, including oats and rye.

Bormet said that for corn and grain sorghum, there must be a minimum reduction of 20 percent from the farm's 1959-60

Can Start Work On L-W In June If Bonds Get OK

If the voters of Lincoln-Way high school district approve a $750,000 bond issue at a special election to be held a week from Saturday--Feb. 24, the school will be ready to meet the enrollment increase anticipated in 1963, according to the administrative staff.

If the bond issue fails, it was said, the only alternative left the board of education is to call another election. Delay, however, could cause a considerable problem and too much would end up with double shifts or the dropping of some subjects from the curriculum. This latter course, it was said, would affect the high standards of the school and could affect the scholastic future of its students.

If the bond issue is approved Feb. 24, according to Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, it would be possible to get bids and begin construction in June. If such a start could be made then the additional space would be ready for occupancy by September, 1963.

The present enrollment is more than 800. School authorities say that surveys show that the number of pupils in September, 1962 will be approximately 1,000 and by September, 1963 it is expected the number will be around 1,200.

As of now there are not sufficient classrooms in the school to accommodate all of the classes. As a matter of fact, school administrators point out, there is scarcely enough room of any kind now to take care of all class needs. Classes are being conducted in the auditorium and the foyer of the school and the cafeteria also has been pressed into use for classes when it is not being used for its original purpose.

Plans for the proposed addition show a building in keeping with the rest of the school plant, functional but with no deluxe features. The Lincoln-Way board of education has endeavored to get the most for the district's money in building the school and no fancy extras that mark some of them are to be found there.

A citizens advisory committee, that is familiar with the needs and the problems of the school, that is working for the success of the bond issue. Lewis Loebe, of New Lenox, is chairman of this committee.

Albert H. Krusemark, president of the Lincoln-Way school board, told of the need for approval of the bond issue in the forthcoming referendum at a meeting of the New Lenox Association of Commerce held Tuesday noon in the Methodist church dining room. Mr. Krusemark, who has been a member of the board since the district was formed, is familiar with all of its problems.

He said it was urgent that the bond issue be approved now so work on the new addition can be started in June. Delay, he said, would be a hardship on the faculty as well as the students.

Experiment In Morris A Reality In New Jersey

Telephone service of the future--a laboratory dream that became reality in a Morris, Ill., trial -- will reach its full expectations in Succasunna, N.J.

Succasunna, a community of 6,800 people about 20 miles west of Newark, N. J., has been selected as the site of the first full-scale model of the Electronic Central Office (ECO), Robert P. Reuss, Illinois Bell Telephone Co. vice president and general manager for State Area, announced today.

Morris is the site of the field trial of the world's first ECO. More than 420 Illinois Bell customers are taking part in tests that began more than a year ago.

Installation and testing of the highly - complex electronic equipment should be completed by mid-1965.

Altho similar in concept to the Morris trial, the Succasunna installation is designed for commercial production to meet the needs of Bell System customers. Among the unique telephone services being considered for Succasunna are: Two - digit dialing for frequently-called numbers.

Automatic routing of incoming calls to another phone when the originally-called line is busy. Dialing a code to forward incoming calls to another telephone when the customer is away from home.

Dialing a third party into an existing telephone conversation.

These and other features can be "programmed" into the ECO's memory which is capable of storing millions of bits of information for use on instantaneous command. The exact features which will be offered initially still are to be determined.

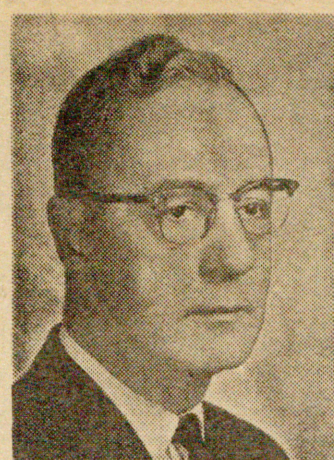

Happy Birthday!

Almost 3,500,000 members of the Girl Scouts will celebrate the organization's 50th anniversary on Monday, March 12.

Since 1912, almost 18,500,000 girls and adults enrolled in Girl Scouting. It was on March 12 of that year that Mrs. Juliette Low organized the first troop of 12 girls in Savannah, Georgia. She brought back from a trip to England the principles of Scouting as set forth by Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Scouting movement, and adapted them to the needs of girls here.

For half a century, communities across the nation have been grateful for the influence of Scouting.

ROY DOERFLER is a candidate for the nomination for sheriff on the Republican ticket. Doerfler, who formerly served the county as a deputy sheriff and sheriff is now county treasurer. He has made a career, however, of law enforcement and is a graduate of the FBI Academy.

Tinley-Mokena In Wrestling Bout Saturday

The Tinley Park Boys' wrestling team will wrestle in their first official meet on Saturday, Feb. 17, in the Central school, when they take on the Mokena grade school team.

The meet is scheduled to start at 1 p.m. and wrestling fans and Tinley Park athletic boosters are urged to attend. The newly formed Tinley Park team will be opposed by a more experienced Mokena team, who have had one year of competition.

The response for boys to join the Tinley Park team has been overwhelming with a total of 85 signing up.

The team coaches, Alex Bulow, Jim Casey, and Arnold Gunther, plan to enter the team in the Central AAU, sponsored by a Chicago daily newspaper, in the primary division next month.

The team practices Mondays and Thursdays in the Memorial school gymnasium.

DRAKE UNIVERSITY BAND -- The Music Parents Association of Carl Sandburg High School is sponsoring an appearance of the well-known Drake University Concert Band on Wednesday evening, Feb. 28, at 8:15 p.m. in the school auditorium, 133rd Street and LaGrange Road (Route 45), Orland Park, Illinois. This fine concert group, under the capable direction of Don R. Marcouiller, will present music written expressly for the concert band medium and it is well known for its leadership in this field. Mr. Marcouiller is a conductor of note, inasmuch as he participates in clinics, festivals and music contests held in the Midwest each year. The concert program includes symphonic music arranged for band and other works written originally for the medium. A complete and balanced instrumentation is an important factor in accomplishing these symphonic results for which the Drake University Band is noted. Seventy-five students comprise this touring band and are students majoring in a variety of fields. Drake is a fine arts college offering its students a wide variety of study and is in its eightieth consecutive year. Each concert is designed to bring the inspiration of these talented, youthful musicians to hundreds of audiences and to add to their education program the training and experience which the band members themselves receive from giving concerts under the critical observation of audiences which gather to hear them. Tickets for this concert are $1.00 for adults and fifty cents for students. (CHS Photo)

Will Co. Joins Program To Reduce Flood Dangers

Maps will be prepared defining how lying land subject to periodic flooding in more than half of Will county, as a result of actions taken by the Will county board of supervisors. The board voted to authorize Will county's participation in the unique Northeastern Illinois flood hazard mapping program and appropriated $25,000 over the next five years as the county's share in the financing of the $268,000 program. The vote was 31 in favor and two opposed. In a subsequent action, Edward J. Liberty, chairman of the board of supervisors, signed a working agreement with the Northeastern Illinois metropolitan area planning commission, which is coordinating the mapping project. Under the program, 2,508 square miles (two-thirds of the Chicago metropolitan area) are to be covered by 44 single-sheet maps which will show at a glance which lands along creeks and rivers are subject to periodic flooding. Besides defining the "flood hazard" lands, the maps will also contain graphs showing depth of flooding and charts showing the estimated frequency of future floods at particular points in the metropolitan area. The maps are being prepared by the U. S. Geological Survey, which began work on the project last summer. Flood gages have been installed and are now gathering data at more than 200 stations in the metropolitan area. Purpose of the five year program is to provide Northeastern Illinois counties and their municipalities with data needed to reduce flood damage by planning for proper land development in flood plain areas. Legislation passed in 1959 empowers counties and municipalities to establish zoning regulations to keep obstructive and vulnerable development out of the natural flood plains. The flood hazard maps will furnish the hydrologic data that are needed before the local governments can put these powers to use. The working agreement signed by Will county calls for the preparation of eight maps for that county, each map covering a standard topographic quadrangle of about 57 square miles. In voting to approve participation in the project the Will county supervisors went further and asked a representative of the Northeastern Illinois planning commission whether it would be possible to have all of the county mapped. John R. Sheaffer, hydrologist on the planning commission staff, replied that the present schedule of mapping covers those parts of the metropolitan area that are most likely to receive intensive urban development in the near future. At the same time he indicated that it might be possible to have additional maps prepared after the 44 maps now contracted for are finished. Will county board members also asked for and received assurances that the planning commission will provide guidance on use of the flood maps in preparing flood plain regulations once they are completed. The Northeastern Illinois flood hazard mapping program is a three party arrangement. The six metropolitan counties (Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry and Will) have agreed to provide half the funds required, and matching funds are made available by the U. S. Geological Survey, the agency which is carrying out the mapping. The Northeastern Illinois planning commission is coordinating the project and will also undertake to prepare manuals and other materials to guide local governments on the use of the maps and the accompanying flood data.
